

Konferencja
"Miasto sprawiedliwości naprawczej - most do porozumienia"
8 - 9 listopada 2021 / Wrocław

Patrizia Patrizi (Sardinia, Italy) is psychologist and psychotherapist, full professor of Psychology and Law, and Restorative Justice Practices at the University of Sassari. She is Board member of the European Forum for Restorative Justice since June 2017; she is Board representative at the Working group on Restorative Cities and co-organizer of 11th EFRJ international conference in Sassari; she is member of the Training Committee. She is currently co-coordinator of the Italian national group of the Restorative Justice: Strategies for Change (RJS4C) project.

She was an expert counsellor for the Italian juvenile justice system, and she is an expert trainer for professionals working in the Italian penitentiary system, in the Department of juvenile and community justice, in social services and NGO.

She is scientific responsible of Team of Restorative Justice Practices on a permanent basis in Italy. In 2014 they started the first research action programme on designing a local community intervention based on restorative justice practices in Nuchis-Tempio Pausania, now Tempio Restorative City. In 2017 they established the Restorative Service of Psychological Counseling in the District of Tempio Pausania. They developed a model of restorative community named 'Co.Re. - Community of Restorative relationships'. Among the results of their work in Italy: the book "La giustizia riparativa. Psicologia e diritto per il benessere di persone e comunità" (Patrizi, ed., 2019) and the Master "Restorative Justice and Mediation: People and Communities Well-being" (University of Sassari).